...FOR THE DREAMERS OF A BETTER WORLD...

This is an invitation to run your own
RETREAT OR WORKSHOP

at

Old Joe's Kaia

Event Destination

Take an easy three-hour drive from Johannesburg to the beautiful Schoemanskloof valley. Arrive, unpack, relax and start running your very own retreat or workshop. No mess, no fuss, just have fun doing what you do best - teaching, guiding and facilitating.

Under the sun, stars and sky we have exquisite permaculture based gardens, our seven circuit natural Labyrinth, the ceremonial Olive Room and swimming pool to add to the experience.

Old Joe's Kaia boasts an indoor Meeting Room with a wooden floor that is perfect for movement sessions for 16 yogis, or a meeting of minds with seating for 25, projectors and white boards. Our beautiful Labyrinth and The Olive Room can be incorporated into your design. Our Travelers Lounge is where you will dine, unwind and connect in a more informal space with books galore to be read whilst sipping drinks or delicious wines.

We love to take the headache out of running workshops for you, should you decide to make it a public event. We will then take care of every detail by:

- Co-marketing with you to our strong database
- Taking all bookings
- Handling payments
- Housing, spoiling and delighting participants with our divine vegan cuisine
- Hosting spouses that wish to be here but not necessarily participate in the workshop

ROOM CONFIGURATION

- 8 rooms in total (one is complimentary for a maximum of two facilitator/s/presenter/s), sleeping maximum 17 people.
- 4 twin-bedded rooms sleeping 2 people each
- 4 queen-bedded rooms sleeping 2 people each

STUDIO /FACILITY can be viewed here.

THE LABYRINTH

Our 7-circuit Classical Labyrinth is often used by facilitators as part of the weekend's proceedings and design. It is a serene and tranquil sacred space for deep contemplation and introspection. Alternatively, the indigenous plant growth that make up the circuits is a delight to the eye for those who simply want to forest bathe in beautiful nature.

THE OLIVE ROOM

Here your design can incorporate fire and cleansing rituals. This sacred space is clean and bare with an altar and a wood fire pit.

A TYPICAL WEEKEND EVENT runs from Friday night until Sunday lunchtime.

We distinguish between guests as follows:

Participants - as a presenter you would add your facilitation fees onto our standard fee (as above), either sharing or single.

Non-participants - some participants may bring a partner along who simply wants to enjoy our offering without being involved in your activities. This person will be quoted our standard sharing fee.

Non-resident participants - Old Joe's Kaia's cost is R 550.00 per day (R 1050.00 for 2 days), including Breakfast and Lunch. Facilitator fee needs to be added to this.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENT

We need a minimum of 8 paying guests (excluding the facilitator/s) to be booked in order to go ahead with the event.

Planning ahead is advisable so that the necessary marketing can be implemented to ensure the minimum number.

MARKETING THE EVENT

This should be a joint effort and the responsibility of both the facilitator and the Old Joe's Kaia team. Flyers and other marketing material should be a combination of both parties' offering and should be designed as such. Old Joe's Kaia undertakes to finalise the end products before the invitation is sent out to both parties' databases and social media. A detailed list will be discussed before design work commences.

FOOD AND CATERING

Old Joe's Kaia is a vegan establishment and does therefore not serve or use any animal products. Meals are healthy, nutritious and make for an exciting experience. Please view Tripadvisor for comments to see what people think of our offering.
